About the Presenter

Sr. Maribeth Wentzlaff, OSB, is a member of the Sacred Heart Monastery in Yankton, South Dakota. She's originally from a family of five children and was raised in Miller, SD, but moved to Yankton to attend Mt. Marty College for her undergrad degree, where she majored in English and secondary education. Maribeth joined the monastery her junior year in 1987 and professed vows in 1990. She taught in a Catholic high school in Sioux Falls before becoming the Director of Campus Ministry and Ministry Director at Mt. Marty College in 1996, positions she still holds today. In 2001, Maribeth earned her Master Degree in Pastoral Ministry from St. Mary's University in Winona, MN, and since 2005 has been a certified spiritual director. Since 1990, Maribeth has been a part of the vocation team for her community and served as vocation director from 2011-13. In her free time she enjoys traveling, fishing and playing Pinochle.
