Rest Stops for the Soul

Stories of Transformation on the Journey of Faith

Conversion is a personal experience that leads us to community. The movement of transformation beckons us to believe and accept our identity as the beloved of God. For most of us, conversion is not one, brief, blinding moment that changes our life forever, but rather a slow, maturing process that takes place over time as we learn a new language found in the whisper and wisdom of our God - the language of the soul. This retreat reflects how the life of faith is a sojourn of the soul. During this rest stop for our soul, we will explore stories of faith, friendship, and community to see how they connect us to our sense of call.
