Healthy Sexual Integration In Religious Life Workshop

Presenter: Kathy Galleher, Ph.D

The workshop will focus on sexual integration in consecrated life. It stresses the importance of self-awareness, self-acceptance, integration, and integrity for healthy life-giving celibate chastity. Practical skills for dealing with loneliness, desire, and attractions will be presented.

Dr. Kathy Galleher is a licensed psychologist and program director for the Healthy Sexuality and Intimacy in Consecrated Life program. After several years of working men and women religious in residential treatment addressing a range of psychological challenges, she currently practices privately, providing education, training and mental health services to those in ministry.
